ABOUT PHILADELPHIA EAGLES CAMPS:

Philadelphia Eagles Youth Football Camps are week-long, non-contact, day-camps for kid's ages 6-14 years old. Programs run Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. Camps are led by professional educators and college coaches with supplemental instruction provided by Philadelphia Eagles Heroes. Participating Eagles Heroes include Brian Baldinger, Garry Cobb, Frank LeMaster, Joe Pagliei, Vince Papale, Joe Pisarcik and Pete Retzlaff.

LOCATIONS OF OPERATIONS:

The fifteen plus camps will operate throughout the Philadelphia and greater Philadelphia area.

Our schedule is posted at www.EaglesCamps.com

SEEKING CAMP DIRECTOR AND COACHES:

Directors are contracted and paid to lead single camp or consecutive camp locations. Qualifications include high school, college or professional football coaching experience. A degree in Education with experience teaching elementary and/or grade school is preferred.

We seek highly organized information managers, positive, high-energy personalities with strong leadership qualities. Directors must demonstrate a strong network of coaches and student instructor relationships.

FULL SERVICE SUPPORT

Directors, hired as independent contractors, will be provided with a hiring budget, customer information reports, schedules, administrative services, Eagles Camp equipment, Eagles off-the-field program materials and goals/objectives for the camp. Directors are required to possess their own expertise and bring their own equipment and training materials to the camps.

The director is also required to contract his staff based on camp sales and is the key person in charge of program execution. Interview(s), references, background checks are all part of the hiring process and all coaches are subject to criminal background screenings.
