Last Season Recap: The Scotties finished with a 4-6 overall record; and having a first round exit in the WPIAL playoffs however, they had some standout players.

Defense: This defense gave up 30.1 points a game a season ago but was able to find themselves in the WPIAL playoffs. They did also have two games where they only allowed single digit points.

Overall: Both Keefers will be back for their season campaign, along with some key receivers, however they will be losing the number one rusher Tray Whetsel. If this brother-to-brother connection continues, along with allowing fewer points per-game the Scotties can find themselves at least a .500 record.
