

Summit Academy Preview:

Last season Recap: Last season was not one to remember for Summit Academy. They had a record last season of 1-9. The only win they ended up having was against Springdale.

Offense: Offense for Summit was really nothing special. They averaged two touchdowns a game with their winning game they only scored eighteen points.

Defense: The defensive side of the ball for Summit was really not good. They gave up on average 25 points per game.

Overall: 2023 looks to be a bounce back year for Summit as they try to gain a little confidence and make a push for playoffs. The team will have a fairly tough schedule with teams like Laurel, Rochester and Union ahead.

Season record prediction 3-7
