

Moon Area Tigers
Allegheny Six

Recap: The Moon Tigers finished with a 5-4 record in the regular season, however fell short losing in the second round of the WPIAL playoffs to the soon WPIAL 5A Champion Peters Township Indians 41-18.

Offense: Moon scored 305 total points last year, 157 of which was against conference opponents. This averages them to scoring 25.4 points per game. In their last five games, they scored 42 points three times, and 35 points another.

QB Andrew Cross led the team in passing with over 400+ yards 5 TDs and 4 INTs. While the Tigers only had one receiver with over 100+ yards, Josh Bladel had over 1,000 on the ground. He averaged 5.6 yards per carry and had 14 total TDs.

Defense: Moon's defense allowed the fourth most points in per game in all 5A with 26.5. Six times during the entire season the Tigers allowed 30+ points per game.

Overall: The Tigers are losing one of their top producers in RB/OLB Ben Bladel, but the team does have a lot of upperclassman depth Including:

- Senior Guard – Xavier Moyer
- Senior Tackle – Jake D'Aniello
- Senior Tackle Nick Hage
- Sophomore Athlete – Braeden Stuart
- Senior RB – Naz Brookins
- Senior WR/S – Nicky Prozzoly
- Junior QB – Andrew Cross
- Senior RB/LB – Travis Lindsay
- Junior OLB – Jared Moyer
- Junior CB – Paul Bronaugh
- Junior DL – Nick Clemens

This team is set up to be better than last year and compete with everyone on their schedule. "The expectations have been set at Moon now for us to play and compete at a championship level," Head Coach Ryan Lunn said. "With multiple starters returning from WPIAL 5 A semi-final appearance, we are looking forward to this season with high expectations. We have to replace a few key players but have some talented underclassmen who are ready for their turn on Friday nights."
